Customized indoors or out, Urban Scaventure is our most versatile hunt which can be and has been done anywhere and everywhere. From city streets to famous landmarks, from museums to the zoo, you choose the location, and we make it an event to remember!

Urban Scaventure brings together the elements of our classic scavenger hunt by creating a unique, walking photo hunt custom-designed for your team. We combine adventure and exploration into a memorable team building event that guarantees your team will have a great time while discovering new things about their surroundings and each other during this unforgettable experience!

How does it work?

This on-foot hunt is custom-designed to the location that you choose. Teams of six to eight individuals each compete with one another to photograph as many items on their lists as they can in two hours. The 100+ item list includes specific photo opportunities, creative team challenges, and customized company information. We can even add professional actors to pop-up throughout the game with additional clues and challenges. Equipped with digital cameras, a team mascot, an item collection bag and optional team identity items such as t-shirts or bandanas, teams strategize, communicate, problem-solve, negotiate and work together in a team building event that's also fun! The excitement builds as teams gather at the end for the tallying of the points and the sharing of the team challenges.

And the winner is...your entire team!

Ideally, the hunt ends at a location that allows the group time to share their experiences, tell stories, showcase team challenges and share their photos. TeamBonding facilitators download each team's digital pictures onto a laptop computer for projection on a big screen, and lots of laughs.

Facilitators work as judges to validate the photos and present comedic wrap-up highlighting the accomplishments of individual teams and the group as a whole. At the end of the judging, prizes are awarded and teams receive their photos to share, post on a company website or to frame as a reminder of the day's laughs and camaraderie.

Ideal Usage:

- Training session kickoffs
- Celebrate recent success
- Energize conferences
