Team Building through the Power of Play!

“An AMAZING event! Our associates raved about the experience and ranked “In It To Win It” as one of the highlights of their Welcome Week experience. Paul and his team were wonderful and experts in keeping the crowd engaged, full of friendly competition... excited...yelling, cheering each other on, and laughing. We are very satisfied with the level of professionalism, organization, and execution that the Team Bonding team delivered.”

Bring on the Competitive Spirit!

It was only a matter of time before the hit NBC TV show became a fantastic team building event!

The Game:

In it to Win It: Teams! is one of TeamBonding's most popular corporate team building events, and with good reason! Teams compete with each other for the grand championship by building ten simple but nerve-wracking games using common household or office items. Challenges increase in difficulty as the points increase, but the time never does! With only 60 seconds on the clock, the pressure builds, and team pride is on the line as teams race to achieve glory!

All teams take part in a 30-minute ‘training camp’ to practice challenges, such as ‘Moving on up,’ ‘Bouncing George,’ and ‘Fishbowl.’ Then, teams compete on the main stage, accompanied by music and humorous commentary from our helpful and engaging Master of Ceremonies. Excitement, drama and competitive spirit are all part of the mix, as the challenges heat up, and the teams have a blast.

This customizable program can include games unique to your organization, or can include access to our vault of games tailored to your specific needs and goals. A sure-fire winner, In it to Win It: Teams! works as both a complementary event to a company dinner or meeting, or as a stand-alone event for teambuilding fun.
