HOORAY FOR HOLLYWOOD'S HOLIDAY SALUTE TO YOUR ORGANIZATION!

Congratulations! Your group is so amazing that they have made the buzz in Hollywood! We're making a holiday movie about your group and the great work they do!

Famous director, Rudy Von Hessel is here with his bevy of talent to make the film. His leading lady, the gorgeous, talented and oh-so-in-love-with-herself Gloria Swanson, accompanies him. Gloria throws kisses to all of her fans and kiss-offs to everyone else. Rudy announces to everyone, that with the help of his talented staff, they'll be holding auditions for roles in the movie.

Based on prearranged information about your organization, your guests will howl as attendees audition for the roles of fellow employees and even audition to play themselves.

Alarms will go off in your head as things get complicated by mysterious activities taking place and, when the cast of the film is announced, Gloria makes a toast and...dies! Someone poisoned Gloria Swanson!!!

A detective arrives with clues to figure out the murder with even more personalized information to fill in all the pieces. You'll scream... with laughter, you'll cry for help...solving clues, and you'll alarm yourself by how much fun you're having!!!

You'll never look at "Bob in accounting" in the same way again!!!!

The show is performed during your meal – duration approx 2.5 hours.

This show is suitable for under 100 guests.

All of our performances use comedic interaction whilst remaining PC.

We perform around the tables & do not require a stage.

We do not murder an audience member, no matter how hard you ask!

Includes:
