If you're interested in seeing your group soaring to new heights of fun, frantic energy this is your chance. You're in the Game is a perfect choice to kick off an off-site, celebrate a success, energize a day of meetings, or as a send-off to dinner after meetings.

You're in the Game is completely customizable. We can work with you to incorporate company trivia, or let us provide it for you.

What Game do you want to be in? We'll customize any topic you pick.

Training Module or De-Brief:

There is no debrief for this event. Ending can incorporate an awards ceremony or recognition event if desired.

Minimum/Maximum Group Size:

30-400 participants, the more the merrier! Team sizes can vary from 5 to 12 participants per team based on your group needs.

Program Length: 45-90 minutes. Can be incorporated as a grand finale to a half-day or full day of teambuilding.

Space Requirements: An open space with no tables or chairs. The larger the better, but the giant game board easily adapts to accommodate whatever space you have available. You're in the Game works well in either an indoor or outdoor setting.

Are you ready for the wildest teambuilding program yet? You're in the Game is pure fun and an incredible energizing event. Imagine a giant, colorful game board, large enough to accommodate your entire group. The music starts, the extra-large dice are rolled, and the game begins! Teams work their way around the game board, furiously trying to answer trivia questions and complete wild and wacky "team challenges". Teams earn points for team spirit, creativity, and enthusiasm!

This giant game board can be adjusted to accommodate the size of your group. The game easily adapts to an indoor or outdoor setting. You're in the Game is a great way to end a day of meetings before a send off for dinner and will provide
