

“A good time was had by all. Your facilitators did a great job. I thank everyone from TeamBonding for helping make our MetLife Team Appreciation Day a success.”

R.H. – METLIFE

CORPORATE SURVIVORS

Using Teamwork to Outwit, Ouplay, and Outlast.

Benefits & Results:

- Boosts morale and camaraderie
- Rewards out-of-the-box thinking
- Promotes team problem solving
- Builds team decision-making skills
- Improves time management skills
- Fosters collaboration and communication

When Teams Survive, Teamwork Thrives.

Gather the tribe. In Corporate Survivors, your employees will be put to the test not only to survive the game, but to survive each other. They'll experience an unexpected series of fun and challenging tasks that engage their collective brainpower, physical prowess and survival skills while competing against the other groups. Getting the highest scores in all categories ensures a victory. Which team will survive?

The Game:

Corporate Survivor is a wonderful mix of physical, mental, and creative challenges that build camaraderie and ensure interactive play and cooperation.

Teams enjoy three rounds in which they square off against each other in team tasks and individual tasks. Points are awarded and competition is fierce! At the end of the final event, the team with the most points is the ultimate Survivor, and is hailed by all!

The magic of Corporate Survivors is the collaboration and learning that takes place between co-workers who get to know one another and who gain greater acceptance and understanding of each other. Teammates not only discover their own strengths, they appreciate and recognize the unique ways they may work together in support of one another. The teamwork required to successfully play the game promotes a fresh approach to solving problems and fosters fun in the face of challenges. As teams strive toward a common goal, they learn much about themselves and each other, which translates into better relationships within the world of work.

Continued

teambonding™

Team Building through the Power of Play!

Teams succeed in Corporate Survivors
by working together in competitive,
intense, silly and fun challenges.
The best part is they enjoy every moment of it!

CORPORATE SURVIVORS cont.

Customized to Your Group's Needs

TeamBonding can make your Corporate Survivors program more cerebral or more physical, depending on your group. We also can adapt challenges and activities for all ages and fitness levels. No matter how your team stacks up, we'll work with you to develop the best mix of activities that engage and entertain, while achieving your team building goals. While activities and challenges are customized, each program usually includes these favorites:

- Assorted Relay Races. (Crazy twists, but low physical difficulty!)
- Blind Leading the Blind Obstacle Course
- Survivor Larger Than Life Game Board
- Tribal Dance & Chant
- Build-a-Tent
- Distress Signal Creation
- Survivor Goals

Corporate Survivors puts teams into challenging situations, and promotes teamwork, communication, and total commitment to team goals. May the best team survive!

Ideal Usage:

- Annual meetings
- Company outings
- Project kickoffs

Minimum/Maximum Group Size:

- 20 to 200. Divided in groups of 10.

Time:

- 2.5 to 3 hours, depending on the size of your group.

Space:

- Can be conducted indoors or out in an area that accommodates the size of your group.