A Fun-Filled, Team Building Battle of Culinary Champions!

Benefits & Results:

- Promotes creativity and innovation
- Builds teamwork in fun environment

- Develops strategic thinking
- Fosters problem solving

High-Energy Teamwork Yields Multi-Course Deliciousness!

Get ready for the food to start flying as your Teflon Chef teams face off against each other in a frenetic culinary battle of champions. Before the competition, the group will determine which Teflon Chef battleground to compete in – Italian, French, Mexican, Organic, seafood, beef, poultry or vegetarian. During the cook-off, chefs race to complete a definitive multi-course meal.

The Game:

Teams will be challenged to their fullest as their cooking, negotiation, bartering and buying skills will be put to the test. They'll have to create a multi-course masterpiece by best utilizing the puny budget allotted to them. They'll buy key ingredients or hire our consultant Teflon Chef (who won't cook for them, but will, but will help them move in the right direction). Teams soon learn that the competition is fierce and speed is critical.

Of course, teams must utilize the Mystery Ingredient Du Jour and it must be prominently used in all of the dishes. This magic ingredient could be anything from king crab, ketchup, or lemon grass to lettuce or lobster. As you might imagine, the results can be a little crazy – around here, foie gras ice cream comes with the territory.

A distinguished group of discerning and hilariously outspoken judges determine who reigns victorious. But regardless of the outcome, teams are guaranteed two things – unforgettable team building fun, and that nobody will go away hungry!
