Outrageous Games is the quintessential high-spirited team-building program. From the opening ceremony to the presentation of coveted Bronze, Silver and Gold medals, TeamBonding delivers continuous high-energy fun. You simply provide the playing field, and TeamBonding takes care of the rest!

This is a highly polished production, staffed by trained Facilitators who know how to build enthusiasm and make sure your guests have a good time. We've staged literally thousands of Outrageous Games programs over 20 years for clients nationwide. No wonder we're considered the Zen masters of fun!

We conduct our games as an interactive live production, like something you might see on ESPN. A professional Master of Ceremonies, will provide hilarious play-by-play commentary throughout the activities. Our Outrageous Officials arrive dressed ready to assist your teams and judge the results on the field. Every event also features musical underscoring provided by an on-field DJ. It's tough to get our DJ to stop once he gets going, so your package also includes two hours of DJ service included for your postgame festivities!

Once the participants are divided into teams, they compete head-to-head in wacky, wild, non-athletic relay races. Our games are designed to build team strength, facilitate communication and test problem-solving skills.
