The program is a great metaphor for teamwork within the workplace, as well as being an excellent time! Expect teams to be entertained and energized throughout the event and after!

Of course, TeamBonding takes care of all the details involved with planning, creating and leading the event to make it unforgettable and engaging for your group.

After a session that briefs the participants on the scenario, they are given the tools and instructions used in forensic collection and crime-solving. Teams get to sleuthing as each uses their collective skills of observation, critical thinking and just plain smarts as they examine the crime scene, dust for prints, sift for clues, and scout out evidence to aid in the Corporate CSI. They'll receive critical information via investigation, autopsy, ballistics, and trace reports.
