Gather the tribe. In Corporate Survivors, your employees will be put to the test not only to survive the game, but to survive with each other. They'll experience an unexpected series of fun and challenging tasks that engage their collective brainpower, physical prowess and survival skills while competing against the other groups. Getting the highest scores in all categories ensures a victory. Which team will survive?

Corporate Survivor is a wonderful mix of physical, mental, and creative challenges that build camaraderie and ensure interactive play and cooperation. Participants enjoy multiple rounds of varying games that highlight individual's skills, and praise teamwork. Teams spar against each other, and points are accrued for successfully completing and winning each game. At the end, the team with the most points is the ultimate Survivor, and is hailed by all!

The magic of Corporate Survivors is the collaboration and learning that takes place between co-workers who get to know one another and who gain greater acceptance and understanding of each other. Teammates not only discover their own strengths, they appreciate and recognize the unique ways they may work together in support of one another. The teamwork required to successfully play the game promotes a fresh approach to solving problems and fosters fun in the face of challenges. As teams strive toward a common goal, they learn much about themselves and each other, which translates into better relationships within the world of work.

Corporate Survivors can be customized to your group's needs. TeamBonding can make your program more cerebral or more physical, depending on your group. We also can adapt challenges and activities for all ages and fitness levels. No matter how your team stacks up, we'll work with you to develop the best mix of activities that engage and entertain, while achieving your team building goals. While activities and challenges are customized, each program usually includes favorites such as relay races (crazy twists, but low physical difficulty), blindfolded obstacle course, team cheer, as well as accuracy and aim based games.
