

TEAM CHOCOLATIER

A TEAM BUILDING CHOCOLATE-MAKING WORKSHOP.

BENEFITS & RESULTS

- Boosts morale and camaraderie
- Promotes teamwork in a fun setting
- Fosters collaboration
- Engages creativity & team effort
- Enhances collaboration

Challenge your team to become chocolatiers for the day! Our hands-on Team Chocolatier workshops provide a marvelous way to spend a few hours working and playing as a team. Learn to make show-stopping truffles filled with anything from champagne cream to chocolate peanut butter. It's surprisingly easy once you understand a few essentials, plus a few secrets from our Master Chocolatier!

To kick off this team building challenge, guests are divided into groups and receiving a chocolate mission and target market segment. Then, each team creates a box of chocolates for a section of the consumer market, complete with a brand identity, marketing slogan and eye-catching packaging as part of an exciting team building challenge.

The Team Chocolatier workshop delivers delicious tidbits on the world of chocolate along with fascinating, practical chocolate-making skills:

- Roll and dip your own truffles in a variety of scrumptious toppings
- Create amazing molded chocolates
- Produce assorted fillings
- Piping, shaping and coating chocolates
- Packaging chocolate handiwork for maximum "WOW" factor
- Understand the chocolate process from bean to bar
- Get tips on tasting, buying and storing fine chocolate

Of course, your team will taste some chocolate and will take home their creations – along with some new, exciting chocolate making skills to create more at home! No matter your business or industry, your team will find this event a delicious way to build a team!
