Activity Overview

- Before the meeting an email is sent out to the participants with lyrics of the chosen song
- Participants are encouraged to join from their computers and keep their phones free for recording
- Participants are kept on mute to allow everybody to participate at their own level without fear of embarrassment
- Delegates sing in unison for the verses and are trained to break into a 3-part harmony for the choruses
- Individual recordings are mixed together and the final studio track is mastered
- A video of the gallery footage can also be edited along with the final track as an optional extra
